BENJAMIN FRANKLIN HIGH SCHOOL

ROCHESTER, NEW YORK

FOREWORD

"The next thing most like living one's life over again seems to be a recollection of that life, and to make that recollection as durable as possible by putting it down in writing."

—Benjamin Franklin

With this thought in mind, we hope that our yearbook will give us in the future an opportunity of reliving the happy moments and the pleasant days we spent in school. In this KEY we present a "recollection as durable as possible" of the events and activities of Benjamin Franklin High School during our senior year.

May we also present at this time Little Benny, who, we hope, will be a cheerful companion to guide you through the KEY.

LITTLE BENNY LOOKS AT OUR SCHOOL

FACULTY

Best wishes to a swell guy in my B4G5" class from Darwin's missing link.

LITTLE BENNY SINGS OUR ALMA MATER

In Franklin High we place our trust,
The source of our life's aim;
We crown with honors fair and just
Our Alma Mater's name.
Let steady foresight point the way
And care our actions lead;
Our deeds and not our words will lay
Foundations of our creed.

With loyalty to Franklin High,
With harmony in thought,
We shall with single purpose strive
For strength in honors sought.
Let hope acknowledge no defeat,
And friendship be our rule;
Let time with measured march repeat
The spirit of our school.

LITTLE BENNY INTRODUCES OUR FACULTY

Dearest Vinnie,

I cant think of words wonderful enough to describe you because you are such a doll. But I will say that I think you're tops & I'll always love you

Love
Ann Fredson

Principal

We, of Benjamin Franklin High School, are fortunate to have as our principal a man as versatile as Mr. Butterfield. Although his tasks are many, he is never too busy to share our joys and to help us in the solution of our problems.

To Mr. Sabin, who has been our genial friend and counselor and who has had a sincere interest in our welfare, we extend our grateful appreciation.

WILLARD A. SABIN

IN MEMORIAM

MISS ELIZABETH COUGHLIN

The death of Miss Coughlin brought both sorrow and regret to all of us; for she was not only an excellent teacher, but also a good friend and adviser. As a mathematics instructor, she was conscientious and inspiring; as a home-room teacher, she was one of us, understanding our difficulties and enjoying our triumphs.

We pay tribute to Miss Elizabeth Coughlin; her kindly manner, her deep loyalty, and her charming personality will long be remembered by many a student of Benjamin Franklin High School.

The Commercial Honor Society is composed of students who are recognized for their ability and excellence in scholastic pursuits. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Palmer and Mr. Bulley, the society meets once a month to discuss current problems of the business world.

IL CIRCOLO DANTE

The Modern Language Department offers to students of exceptional linguistic ability an opportunity to join an honor society. Meetings are held regularly; and several times a year each society has a party at which there are games, refreshments, and entertainment. These societies stimulate students to work harder in order to become eligible for membership.

The bookstore is open for business not only before school but also after school. Here one may purchase all kinds of school supplies in addition to bus tokens and tickets for school activities. The student body is grateful to the girls and Mr. Warner for the time and effort that they have given in making the bookstore a success.

Co-operative Office Practice and Secretarial Practice

Sitting: Cerminara, Gagliano, Ensign, Mrs. Young, Mr. Zornow, Miss Hoefer, Mulley, DeSanctis, Gresens. First Row: Inguaggiato, Gerenski, Petrone, Laveck, Migliore, Alaimo, Rapkin, Eramus, Clarke. Second Row: Moretti, LaManna, Van Kulak, Vezelis, Costanzo, Albalak, Heier, Lawrenz. Third Row: Desens, Printy, Frank, DiSalvo, Zorn, Burgo, Lins, Comisar, Passarella.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Young, Miss Hoefer, and Mr. Leggett, the co-operative retail and office practice classes form the largest group of their type in the city. The students leave school after the fourth period every day to go to their individual clerical and retailing jobs. In many cases these positions are stepping stones to permanent jobs after graduation.

SENIOR BAND

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

Our enjoyment of the assembly program each Wednesday is increased greatly by the playing of the Senior Band and Orchestra. These organizations, an integral part of our school life, also provide entertainment for such events as Franklin Day, the Spring Concert, and the Senior Play. We are grateful to Mr. Karl Van Hoesen for his capable direction.

JUNIOR BAND AND ORCHESTRA

From the ranks of the Junior Band and Orchestra, which are directed by Mr. Benjamin Scammel, have come the fine musicians for which Franklin is noted.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

Impressive in the traditional red robes, the A Capella Choir, under the direction of Mr. Matthew Lyders, has added beauty and enjoyment to our assemblies. Of particular interest are the colorful programs presented during the Christmas holidays.

MADRIGAL CLUB

Sitting on Floor: Hesselbein, Rosenbloom, Scaccia, Palermo, First Row: Mr. Lyders, Mula, Bernbaum, Phillips, DeVeny, Olles. Second Row: Brone, Heicklen, Lipchitz, Gelb, Baron, W. Lubes, Solomon. Third Row: Coan, Brone, Abraham, Scriver, Ercolano, Minor, Albahari.

The Madrigal Club is composed of a selected group of students who meet for one hour a week and sing for special functions both in and out of school.

JUNIOR CHOIR I

The Junior Choir, under the able direction of Miss Anne Morrow, gives our younger students an opportunity to take an active part in school activities and to receive excellent musical training.

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine"—so said King Solomon thousands of years ago. Since then, people have been discovering that Solomon was right. When they have a "merry heart" and enjoy games and activities, they are healthier, happier, and able to get along better with others. Franklin students follow the "merry heart" philosophy in fine fashion. The Franklin sports program, both intramural and interscholastic, affords wholesome leisure time activities which are enjoyed by young men and young women alike. The range is wide; the offerings unlimited; and the benefits incalculable.

The following pictures show Franklin sports activities. It is our aim to have all Franklin students participate in some wholesome recreational activity. May they carry on the fine sports traditions, already so well established in Franklin, and develop a "merry heart."

A NAMELESS TALE

Once a BRILL-iant horseman in a well BLOCK-ed derby came KANTOR-ing into the little town of CAVO, blowing his SCHERMERHORN as he crossed the BUTTER-FIELD to awaken the sleping populace. There IN-CAVO he spied a scrub-woman REDDING her ADAMS floors in a MINK coat. Surprised, he questioned her as to the incongruity of her work and her apparel.

"Oh, sir," she replied, "my husband was a wealthy LANDS-MAN named LANG, -WORTHY of great honor, whose enemy, by means of a poisoned THORNE, sent him into a de-KLEIN from which he never recovered. The SCHER agony of it has driven me to my present lowly state, for now a NEW-MAN, has my husband's title and my COHEN of misery is overflowing."

"Who, then, has done this dreadful deed?" queried the knight.

"It was WIS(e)-OTSKE, the town BULLEY, whose BLANK-faced CHAMBERLAIN, DALY scourges the town, that toook life's BLOOM from my DARLING. But come in, I'll set a WEIN-STEIN before you. My little, boy, TYM-KIN stable your steed." With this kind invitation, she led him into her a-BODE.

The table she set for him was enriched by the art of the BAKER and the MILLER. KIPP-ers of the KLASS, such as one might expect at the RITZ in LONDON, competed with a steaming CAL-DERON of BAYER meat to tempt his palate. The cheery sight warmed his HART, while outside, SNOW blanketed the LUSH-GREEN WOOD, and the GRAY sky darkend into evening.

She told him of the townsfolk: the MARSHALL, the POTTER, the SMITH, whose land had been GRABB-ed. As the COL-BURN(t) lower, he re-solved that on the MORROW, when he had completed his journey to the WEST, he would tell his king of the LAW-RENCE (rents) he had heard. He would be firm, more O-LES(s). The king should use a RUBY-SEEL(e)-'R else! With this rash resolve he fondled his well TAYLOR-ed mustache, fastened his sword and BECKLER, and continued his journey on horseback, as he had NO-SHAY. He was never SHEEHAN again.

To this day the lady g-REEVES because he DESEN't return. His master has had to HEIER a NEWMAN in the place of the lost courtier, who, it is feared, has fallen into one of the great GRAFF-ite PITTS beside the RING-WOOD.

IMPOSSIBILITIES
. . . CAN YOU IMAGINE . . .

Mr. Bezant leading a jazz orchestra?

Miss Sullivan remaining calm during third period senior English class?

Miss Cochrane, as Public Enemy No. 1?

Mr Francis, as head of the F. B. I. (in peace and war)?

Miss Sickles chewing gum?

Mr. Cleland making faces?

We can't either!!!!!

You Get the Best Bargain Right in Your Own Home . . .

Nowhere do you get value like the electric service you enjoy at home. Cozy lighting, soft music are yours for pennies. Electricity is a servant that works day and night for your comfort and convenience. It does dozens of jobs that save time and work for the whole family.

And yet—the cost of electricity is very little. It is the one item in your budget that keeps going down instead of up.

JACK WOLSKY

Dear Vincent,

It's very hard to think of something to write in your book as you can probably guess. All I have to say is that you already know, I think. Sometimes I could just shake you and at other times — well I think you know that, too. I hope we remain friends for a long time. Always,

Fido

P.S. I'm a copycat,

Fido =>

I hope we shall be together next year + all the years thereafter. I wish my very best of luck Someday I'll see your name in the American Med. Association Journal & I'll be proud that I knew you — My very best Wishes for a bright future

Jules Cohen.
